

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure

Cures a Prominent Attorney.

M. R. C. PHELPS, the leading pension attorney of Belfast, N. Y., writes: "I was discharged from the army on account of ill health, and suffered from heart trouble ever since. I frequently had fainting and smothering spells. My form was bent as a man of 35. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by severe pains about the heart and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone."

FAR EAST

Views of Senator Proctor on the Future Policy of the Country.

RELATING TO PHILIPPINES

Unconditional Acceptance of America's Last Proposal Not Expected. Believed That an Increased Sum of Money Will Be Asked by Spain For the Islands—The War Investigation, Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 4.—United States Senator Redfield Proctor yesterday afternoon addressed the joint assembly of the house and senate which last month re-elected him. Senator Proctor's address was confined to an outline of the foreign situation, which now confronts the government of the United States. The senator said:

"The future policy of this country is the greatest question before our people. Hawaii and Porto Rico have been added to the nation's dominion, and we have become sponsors for the good government of Cuba. We must assume some responsibility in the far east, whether it be greater or less. In my opinion the responsibilities in the far east are bound to be greater."

"Many wise and patriotic men in the country believe we should retain no territory or control any part of the Philippine islands beyond a coaling station, or possibly a single island. I recognize the cogency of their argument, but have failed to see clearly any practical way of carrying out their views. If any jurisdiction is assumed in the east there is no logical stopping place short of the whole of the Philippines. To establish a division sovereignty would invite trouble. Since that May morning, when the Spanish fleet was destroyed, it has seemed to me practically settled that Spain must surrender her entire control of the Philippines. You will pardon me if I have spoken too plainly, but it seemed to me that a frank statement of what I believe would be the inevitable outcome, was not improper at this time."

WHAT MAY HAPPEN.

Washington Officials Expect Spaniards Will Make a Counter Proposition.

Washington, Nov. 4.—By way of preparation for what may happen at the meeting of the peace commissioners in Paris today, it may be said that the officials here have no idea that the Spanish reply will be an unconditional acceptance of our last proposition relating to the acquisition of the Philippines. On the other hand they do not expect an unequivocal rejection. What is likely to occur is that the Spanish commissioners will come in with a counter proposition, the basis of which probably will be a considerable increase in the sum of money to be paid to the Spanish government for the Philippines. This will open a way to negotiations on that subject and, inasmuch as the commissioners spent about six weeks considering the sections of the protocol dealing with Cuba and Porto Rico, it is reasonable to believe that at least a few days may be properly allowed for the discussion of the Philippines.

In short, it may be said that the officials here do not expect a final breach of relations between the commissioners to occur today, notwithstanding the comments of unfriendly European newspapers in that line.

WAR INVESTIGATION.

Testimony Taken at Cincinnati as to Conditions at Camp Thomas.

Cincinnati, Nov. 4.—The session of the war investigating commission yesterday afternoon was confined principally to three witnesses—Major E. F. Helburn of the Second Kentucky (now mustered out), Colonel Hof and Captain

The young man who started in business with a good athletic training back of him will be able to stand more than the man who has not had the same advantage. Nevertheless, if he overworks and neglects his health, he is likely to fall a victim to some fatal malady like his less fortunate brother.

There is only one safe road for a man to tread in the matter of his health. That is the road of eternal vigilance. No man, no matter how strong he may be naturally, can with impunity neglect the little ills and indispositions of life. These little disorders are what make the big ones. When a man suffers from headaches and loss of appetite, feels drowsy and dull during waking hours, cannot sleep at night and is nervous and shaky at all times, he is in a dangerous condition. If he long neglects his condition he will find himself a very sick man. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best of all medicines for the many diseases that are caused by impaired digestion and insufficient and improper nourishment. It creates a hearty, healthy appetite; it makes digestion and assimilation perfect; it invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and nerve tonic. It is the best of all medicines for nervous disorders and it cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, if taken in its earlier stages, before the lungs are too far wasted. For chronic, bronchial, throat and nasal affections it is an unequalled remedy. An honest dealer will not suggest some inferior substitute.

Rev. C. M. Lemond, P. O. Box 207, Gunah, Hardeman Co., Texas, writes: "I write to say during the late trouble between the States I became very ill. I was unable to eat, and I was in the open air at night, which produced slight hemorrhages and loss of voice from which I had suffered more or less for a number of years, until that God-sent 'Golden Medical Discovery' given to the world by the inventive and scientific brain of Dr. R. V. Pierce, was obtained. After six bottles had been used the pains and aches in my lungs began to give way, and now I feel that, with a judicious course of life I may live many years. I thank God for giving to the world a man who has done so much for suffering humanity."

price of the Second Kentucky. The testimony was all regarding conditions at Chickamauga park, and was in effect that there was much suffering owing to the delay in filling requisitions for supplies for sick and the crowded condition of the hospitals.

Captain Price told of instances of brutality on the part of Major Hubbard. He testified that on one occasion when he went to the hospital to see one of his men, who was ill with measles he was informed that the patient had been detailed to carry water. The measles wards were packed, the men being wedged in like sardines. The same was true of the typhoid and malarial wards. The witness, in describing the action of Major Hubbard, said that he choked one patient and forcibly pressed him down on the cot. He then caught the patient's hands and then wrung them until the poor man shrieked with pain. At this point the witness said to Hubbard "I do not know your name or your rank, but this brutality must stop." Hubbard did not stop but said something about showing a patient how to refuse to take medicine.

DON'S GREATLY EXCITED

Over the United States' Intentions Regarding the Philippines.

Madrid, Nov. 4.—The announcement of the intentions of the United States regarding the Philippines has greatly excited the public here. It is generally recognized, however, that it would be absolutely futile to appeal to Europe, which has abandoned Spain to her fate. The newspapers protest vigorously against the "incredible cynicism and abuse of strength of the Americans."

The El Globo exclaims: "Europe and America seem determined to sanction by cowardice and selfishness a crime that will be a blot upon the history of the century."

Red Cross in Cuba.

Major Appel Details His Siboney Experience to Sternberg.

New York, Nov. 4.—Following is an extract from the report of Major A. H. Appel, surgeon U. S. A., in charge of the hospital ship Olivette, to Surgeon General Sternberg:

"While the relief associations did excellent work during the latter part of the war in the emergency of the campaign at Santiago, the medical department of the army was our sole reliance and required all the training and experience of the regular medical officers with the Fifth corps, few enough in number, to meet the emergency."

"There was no lack, whatever, of necessary medical and surgical supplies. But after the battle of Gnasimas, when we brought the wounded down the hills at Siboney, they were woefully lacking in change of raiment, having landed with but the clothes they had on their backs, which were worn into rags, covered with mud and saturated in many instances with blood from their wounds."

"The steamer State of Texas, chartered and loaded with supplies of all kinds by the Red Cross association, with Miss Clara Barton on board, about this time came to anchor at Siboney. Accompanied by my executive officer, Lieutenant D. C. Howard, I called upon Miss Barton, explained to her the situation and asked her whether she could supply those men with clean underwear or pajamas. The president of the National Red Cross society received me most cordially and showed me the cargo manifest of the State of Texas, wherein there were listed numerous boxes of clothing, but stated that the supplies were not for the soldiers; it was the government's business to look after them, not the business of the Red Cross, and all supplies in her charge were for the Cuban reconcentrados, and all would be held until it was possible to deliver them to these people. There were at the time a number of surgeons on board the State of Texas and four trained nurses, but, although we were working night and day taking care of the sick and wounded, no assistance was given by them until some days afterward, when our own men were ready to drop from fatigue."

"My mission, so far as the Red Cross ship was concerned, was a failure. The net result was a society tract which Miss Barton kindly presented to me. As I was leaving the ship I was requested to accept a few bottles of malted milk. About a month later I received a communication from the accountant of the association requesting a receipt for the same as a basis upon which to make claim upon the government for reimbursement."

New Steamship Line.

To Connect Cuba and Porto Rico With the West and East.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Much interest has been shown throughout the west among the business and traveling public as to recently acquired territory in the West Indies. It seems that the transportation companies have been actively at work establish a direct connection with the west—as well as from the east—for Santiago, Havana and Porto Rico, and their plans in this line have been advanced so far as to enable them to announce at least a part of their arrangements for reaching these places from Chicago and the entire west.

There are two steamships already connecting Port Tampa with Havana, and later the service will be increased to four ships weekly and possibly five. Direct connections with Port Tampa from Chicago and the west will be made over the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Louisville and Nashville, Plant system of railroads, connecting with the Louisville and Nashville railroad at Montgomery, Ala. Through sleepers and direct connections will be made with Port Tampa, where connection will be made with the steamship line.

Complain of American Restrictions.

Berlin, Nov. 4.—The Hamburg-American and the North German Lloyd Steamship companies have protested to the German foreign office against the restrictions imposed on steamer passengers passing through Vienna, due to the outbreak of bubonic plague there, which restrictions, the companies claim, are now extended to cabin passengers. They complain that the restrictions in question are unfair, especially as they do not apply to intending passengers who are American citizens.

Movement of Troops Explained.

Washington, Nov. 4.—It was last evening explained at the war department that the movement of troops to Cuba ordered yesterday was in advance of the date originally intended for the reason that the Spanish evacuation commissioners had unexpectedly notified the American commissioners that they intended to evacuate Puerto Principe on the 23d of the present month. Consequently it became necessary to have United States troops on hand in Cuba to replace these Spanish forces to maintain order and protect life and property.

Panama Is Safe.

Court Reverses Itself.

Decision of Kentucky Court of Appeals in a Turnpike Bond Case.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 4.—The court of appeal has reversed one of its former decisions in deciding the case of Montgomery county against Trimble. The court heretofore held in the case of Belknap against the city of Louisville that where the people of any county or district voted on the question of issuing bonds for any given purpose, two-thirds of the legal voters of the district must vote for the proposition. In the Trimble case the court holds that only two-thirds of those voting are necessary to carry the proposition.

Private Property on the Sea.

New York, Nov. 4.—At the regular monthly meeting of the chamber of commerce yesterday, Charles Stewart Smith, on behalf of the executive committee, presented a memorial signed by Charles Henry Butler, for himself and others, and addressed to the president of the United States, urging him to convene an international congress at Washington, to consider the question of making private property on the sea free from capture during war.

HAS RETURNED

President Marsh of the Defunct Philadelphia Keystone National Bank.

WAS ABSENT SEVEN YEARS

He Is Charged With Looting the Institution—Surrenders to His Bondsman—Has Traveled All Over the World—John Wanamaker's Speech Brings Him Home.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—Gideon W. Marsh, the fugitive president of the now defunct Keystone National bank, returned to the city yesterday after an absence of seven years and a half and surrendered to his bondsman, William H. Wanamaker. Later Mr. Wanamaker accompanied Marsh to the office of United States District Attorney Beck and the latter at once turned the fugitive bank president over to the custody of the United States marshal, to await a hearing today.

Marsh, in talking to friends who called on him in the United States marshal's office, before he was taken to prison, said that in the more than seven years of his absence he has roamed almost over the whole world, and worked for a living at anything he could get to do. When he left he had with him $1,885, which he had collected from two friends, who owed him that amount. He went by a circuitous route to Brazil and afterwards travelled from place to place all over the world. He then returned to America, and eventually located in the state of Washington, where, he said, he had earned money at any kind of labor he could get. He said he often longed to come back to Philadelphia, but was deterred through a desire to protect his children from scandal. He felt that to return would revive a state of affairs that would be a scandal to his family.

Sole Topic of Conversation.

The news of Marsh's return, when it became generally known late in the day, was almost the sole topic of conversation. Not the least interesting part of the discussions was in reference to the effect the sudden appearance of the bank president would have in political circles, as Marsh has particularly been the subject of heated controversy between United States Senator Penrose and John Wanamaker.

In a speech a few weeks ago Senator Penrose intimated that John Wanamaker, prior to the failure of the Keystone bank, had knowledge of an over-issue of the bank's stock and knowledge of a demand made by President Marsh on City Treasurer Bardsley for an additional deposit of city funds. He (Penrose) said it was to the interest of Wanamaker that Marsh should not come back to Philadelphia. The senator said he had been in communication with Marsh and that the latter would probably soon come back and tell all he knew about the looting of the bank.

Wanamaker's Speech.

In the course of a speech on Oct. 14, Mr. Wanamaker said: "There is nothing that will please me so much as Mr. Marsh's return, and I welcome the opening again of every book and paper of the bank to public gaze, even as I did years ago. If my eyes will bring this man, doubtless more suited against than sinning, into court and he will tell the truth, I will use my utmost endeavor in securing all the leniency possible in his sentence, and after he has finished it I will aid him in re-establishing himself and his family in life."

"I publish this to the world, hoping he will see it, wherever he is, and I add to it that I have friends who will put in the hands of Quay, Penrose and Andrews whatever money is needed to pay expenses of Marsh's return, as they seem to know where he is. One of them claims to have been in recent correspondence with him. If the poor man, who can yet redeem his life, who must have been crazed when he ran away (poor Hopkins wisely killed himself under similar circumstances), will send me word where he is as soon as these words bear him the message of these dastardly assaults upon me, I will come to him in person in any part of the world and accompany him back."

Mr. Marsh said yesterday that it was this speech that had induced him to return.

Not Likely.

The Chinese Minister Thinks That Russia Has Not Seized Chwang.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The Chinese minister, Mr. Wu, is following with much interest the developments in the east, where the conflicting interests of Russia and England seem to be on the verge of open hostilities. Concerning the latest report, that Russia had taken the treaty port of New Chwang, thus giving her control of all Manchuria and shutting out the British from trade in that great section, Mr. Wu says it is hardly credible that Russia has taken such a step, as New Chwang, being a treaty port, is of almost as much interest to the outside world as it is to China. The treaty ports are freely open to foreign trade, and, as a result, large foreign colonies have been built up in them. It is at the treaty ports that the United States has established her commerce with China. For this reason Mr. Wu feels satisfied that any such important move by Russia as the taking of a treaty port would be speedily reported by the United States minister at Peking and all other foreign representatives in China.

Big Spirits Deal.

British Government Purchases Large Quantity in Chicago For Canada.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—The British government has closed a contract here for the immediate delivery of 125,000 gallons of distilled spirits at Montreal. An intimation was also given that about 450,000 more gallons would in all likelihood be ordered within about 10 days. This order of 125,000 gallons amounts to nearly 3,000 barrels and will require over 60 cars for its transportation into Canada. The use of the distilled spirits thus ordered will be in the manufacture of smokeless powder, of which distilled spirits is one of the chief ingredients.

Red Shirt Parade.

Created Enthusiasm Among Whites and Contention Among Negroes.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 4.—The first red shirt parade on horseback witnessed in Wilmington was held yesterday. It created enthusiasm among the whites and contention among the negroes. The whole town turned out to see it, and hundreds of ladies waved flags and handkerchiefs as the long column of horsemen rode by. While the riders frequently cheered the parade was otherwise quiet and orderly. Not an insulting word was uttered to a negro.

No License Needed.

Case of Indiana Brewing Company Against Chicago Decided.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 4.—The supreme court, in the case of an Indiana brewing company against the city of Chicago, holds that the sale of the product of a brewery or distillery located without the state of Illinois, or outside the limits of Chicago, might be regulated under the ordinance applicable to all such products, but their sale did not bring the distillery or brewery within the limits of the city or place it in such a position that a license could be required before a sale.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Carl Doelle, a musician, shot Mrs. Bertha Riedel yesterday afternoon because she refused to leave her husband and elope with him. Mrs. Riedel was wounded in the side, but will probably recover.

Vote for A. M. Veasey.

Vote for Ezra Whitcomb.

Vote for F. W. Buhner.

No REPUBLICAN in the county should neglect to vote for Major Charles W. Lee for congress and James L. Tucker candidate for prosecuting attorney.

EVERY voter should be sure that he understands the method of voting this year. If you have not looked it up, better get a sample ballot with instructions and be sure you understand the law as revised.

THE people of the country realize that a republican congress must be elected this fall to sustain President McKinley's splendid administration during and following the war with Spain. No republican in this county should neglect to vote for Major Charles W. Lee for congress.

THE meeting of citizens at Reddington and Peter's Switch Wednesday night and those at Conlogue, Rockford and other points last night show that the people are alive to their interests and on next Tuesday will administer the proper sort of a rebuke to the old ring.

THE people of this county are thoroughly tired of the policy of rotation in office that has been in vogue in Jackson county by which a few men and their families have been able to control the nominations and election of county officers in their own interest for years. The people are only waiting until next Tuesday to make their protest emphatic against continuing this policy.

THERE is no danger of a stay-at-home vote in Jackson county this fall. The voters will be out in full force to down the corrupt ring that has controlled the county for so many years at the expense of the taxpayers of the county. Every voter should be sure he understands the method of voting as provided now by law and be able to instruct his neighbors as to the correct method.

ANOTHER SEYMOUR VOLUNTEER

Writes an Interesting Letter of Camp Life at Savannah

Will Carter has received a letter from Will Hill, another one of the Seymour boys in 161st Indiana, and permits the REPUBLICAN to publish a part of it. The letter was written October 29. The regiment had reached their new camp ground at Savannah, Ga., then. He says: "We are in Savannah, Ga., at last and it is the prettiest camp site we were ever on. We are located on a hill south east of the city. There is a canebreak just back of our camp where you can hear the wildcats screeching every night. Just back of the canebreak is a large rice field. They are gathering the rice now.

We had a ten mile stroll this a. m. What do you think of that for army life? Do you want to join? This state puts me in mind of Indiana. It is the only state we have seen since leaving Seymour where the people can raise hay. Voss Cox and Roy Huffman were down here visiting us a few days ago. Their camp is at Hilton Head, South Carolina. They heard that we were here and asked for and obtained a three days leave of absence to come and visit us. Roy looks a good deal fresher than he did at Seymour. Voss is the same old Voss.

We are under the supervision of U. S. regular army officers and after today we will have to fall in for roll call every morning with our belts, bayonets, guns, blouses and in fact every bit of our uniform on, or get fined a 'months pay if we miss just one roll call or one piece of our uniform.

We gave a review this afternoon to show those regular army officers what we could do as we have the reputation of giving the best reviews of any regiment in the 7th corps."

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Five Doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time, I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at W. F. Peters Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Beautiful Sea Shells.

Every one admires them. Since coming south I have received numerous inquiries from northern people for sea shells, and now I am prepared to answer yes, I can send you shells, for I have made quite a collection of lovely shells, both from our own coast, the coral reef, and some beautiful ones from the West India islands. I will mail a dozen or more different kinds, no two alike, to any one who sends a stamp for postage. Yours, Mrs. F. A. WARNER, Jacksonville, Fla.

Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on your Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure or price refunded. For sale at W. F. Peters Drug Store, only 50c per bottle.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Price 50 cents. Sold by Wm. F. Peters, Druggist.

FANATICAL CHINESE.

SUPERSTITION RULES THE RACE FROM CRADLE TO GRAVE.

All Business and Family Matters Directly Controlled by This Unreasonable Influence, Which Makes Brutes of Its Slavish Devotees.

No race in the wide world is more controlled by superstitious notions than the Chinese. They enter into every act of a Chinaman's life, and their influence is more lasting than that of his religion. He cannot move hand or foot without their agency, and from the earliest moment of his life down to the last detail in connection with his burial their power and influence are the guiding motives of his acts. All business and family matters are directly controlled by superstitious sentiments, both rich and poor, young and old, being slaves to their force.

To the average Chinaman his religion is a more negative factor in his mode of life, to be followed or disregarded at will, but no true son of Han dares to act otherwise than in accordance with the strict precepts of those spiritual powers which directly control his life.

There are some amusing superstitions connected with Chinese entertainments. A dinner party is an ordeal which once experienced is never forgotten. It consists of from 40 to 50 distinct courses and occupies the greater portion of a day. During the whole of these repasts and notwithstanding the endless variety of dishes served the invited guest retains the same plate throughout. The explanation of this strange custom is an old proverb, which has now become a superstition, that "he who changes the plates kills the housewife."

Chinese proverbs explain several of the superstitious notions with regard to women. It is considered unlucky for a woman to mix with the builders of a house or other edifice during its erection, and to avoid any possibility of one straying into the premises all approaches are carefully guarded by watchmen, and a fence is erected around the proposed building as soon as its foundations are laid.

The explanation of this is the saying, "Women mix ill with wood, and death lives in the house over whose foundations a woman has walked." There is a similar horror of the fair sex interfering with any public matter of national interest or in any business transactions where men are concerned. "Women tie knots," says the Chinese proverb. "Let them remain at home."

No funeral can take place until astrologers and professional fortune tellers have been consulted. These unscrupulous diviners decide the place of burial, and in the event of disagreement no final interment can take place. This accounts for the number of unburied coffins which are seen about the country districts in China. Sometimes the coffin is temporarily deposited in a temple or kept in the house of the heir of the deceased. Among the poor as often as not it is conveyed to some sheltered spot and covered with a mat.

When in course of time (by aid of additional fees) the diviners can report that all objections to final burial are removed, the funeral takes place amid rejoicing and profane excesses. The mode of propitiation generally prescribed by astrologers is the purchase of some stone or piece of iron, to which an elaborate ritual of prayer and sacrifice is made, or, if the client is wealthy, the building of a pagoda is suggested, in connection with which the mercenary fortune teller doubtless reaps a large commission.

The last species of superstition to which we will call attention forces us to place China among the half civilized and brutal nations. One of these superstitions is that the soul of a dying person takes possession of the bed and room in which the invalid is lying. To obviate such a curse as this the relatives of the dying person, as soon as they perceive his end approaching, forcibly remove him from his bed and place him almost naked upon a board. If by chance a man should expire in his bed, it, together with all the furniture in the room, must be burned and many amulets offered before the room is considered fit for habitation again.

Many strange and inhuman ideas are associated with the illness and death of children. If a child sickens and dies before the age of 12 years, its last moments are hastened by the horrible cruelty of its parents. So long as hope is possible the parents do their utmost to save their child, but as soon as the doctors abandon hope the child is stripped naked and placed against the outer door of the house. When the end has come, the corpse is thrown out into the street to be picked up by the passing dead cart.

The reason for this brutality is this: If a family loses a child before it has grown to maturity, its parents refuse to regard it as their offspring, but rather as some evil spirit who has worked its way into their home in order to bring ruin and misfortune upon it and them. —St. Peter's.

Believed the Defendant Will Be Acquitted of Poisoning Her Husband.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 4. — The Evans murder case has been given to the jury, the attorneys having occupied all of yesterday with their arguments. Colonel John R. East, who represented the accused woman, grew so dramatic in his closing speech to the jury that several women fainted and had to be carried from the courtroom. There is some doubt in reference to Mrs. Evans' guilt and she will doubtless be acquitted of the charge of poisoning her husband.

An Investment.

Good advertising can not be called an expense for it is only an investment, just as you place your money in a stock of goods or a line of any kind, and you get your money out of it just as surely, and with possibly a better margin on the investment than out of the other line of merchandise. Good advertising brings you only pleasing results for in addition to immediate results in way of sales, it brings up a strong feeling of confidence, and it gives your store a forward movement on the road to prosperity and permanent success that it would otherwise cause a span of years covering the ordinary life. It simplifies your efforts; it accomplishes for you at moderate costs what would require years of effort and ceaseless toil to accomplish.

SHOOTING AT SCOTTSBURG.

Marion Tyler Shoots His Wife and Then Himself.

Marion Tyler, of Indianapolis, shot his wife at Scottsburg yesterday afternoon and then put two bullets into his own body, one entering the chin and plowing its way out at the temple and the other piercing the abdomen. Mrs. Tyler was shot in the left cheek and in the shoulder. She will likely recover.

A year ago Tyler secured employment with the street railroad company. He met Mrs. Laura Garriott, who moved to Indianapolis from Scottsburg shortly after he did. They came to love each other and were married. They were very happy for a time, but trouble came between them—there are several different stories about it—and his wife left him. He made several trips to Scottsburg and begged his wife to return to Indianapolis with him, but she refused.

Yesterday afternoon the two stood on the veranda of Mrs. Tyler's parents' home and talked for two hours. Tyler pleaded with her to return to him. She would not give him even hope that she would become reconciled to him. Quickly he drew a revolver and shot her full in the face. She dashed away from him. Tyler aimed carefully and fired a second time at the fleeing woman whom he declared he loved, and the bullet struck in her shoulder. He then opened fire on himself.

Good Goods. Well Advertised.

Going the round of the press is an item stating that the Royal Baking Powder Company is the largest advertiser in America. Of course, the business itself must be an enormous one to justify so great an expenditure in publicity. There is no fallacy more dangerous than that success can be gained by advertising an article of indifferent merit. But, given an article of the highest quality like Royal Baking Powder, which when the housekeeper has once used she finds it she desires the best food she cannot do without, then the greatest measure of success is attained by keeping it continually before the public. Great merit and good advertising are both essential to make a product a great success. The Royal Baking Powder possessing the first, its proprietors have wisely used the second and the result is apparent throughout the land. The Royal company believe that there is no medium for advertising like the newspapers, since in these enlightened days everybody reads them.
